

Bestu Varsh, Gujarati New Year Day today; Vikram Samvat 2080 begins; Nutan Varsha Abhinandan, Happy New Year Gujarat

It's the biggest festival of Gujarati people during the year today. It's a new year day as per Gujarati Hindu Vikram Samvat calendar.

While Vikram Samvat calendar is also used by the people in several north Indian states and it is also the national calendar of neighboring country Nepal, the Gujarati Vikram Samvat calendar is different from others. The new year in Gujarati calendar is celebrated a day after Diwali. This year however it is on the second day after Diwali.
