

Gujarat CM to launch Rs. 1500 cr Namo Lakshmi and Namu Saraswati schemes tomorrow

Aiming to provide high-quality, future-oriented education to students of Gujarat various schemes in the education sector were announced in the state budget for the year 2024-25. Chief Minister Bhupendra Patel will inaugurate two such schemes, namely Namu Lakshmi Yojana and Namu Saraswati Vigyan Sadhana Yojana, estimated at ₹1500 crore, on March 9, to strengthen secondary and higher secondary education in the state. The launch event will take place at Gyanda Girls High School in Ahmedabad, with the presence of Gujarat Primary and Secondary Education Minister Kuber Dindor.