

21-year old female student on 2-wheeler dies after a speeding car hit her vehicle

A physiotherapy student girl died after her moving Honda Active was hit by a car near Asopalav three roads in the city. The hit of the car was so strong that she was dragged to 50 meters distance on the road. In a bleeding situation, she died after she was taken to the hospital. Her family members gathered at the police station, demanding quick arrest and actions against the person on driving seat of the car. The victim girl went on comma after her vehicle was hit by the speedy car. She also suffered multiple fractures. The victim girl is identified as Naranpura based 21 years old Vishwa Shah. According to those who witnessed this accident, the car was speeding as it wanted to cross the signal on Asopalav three roads before it turn red. The victim girl was taken to a private hospital and kept on ventilator. She had severe injuries