

Timely Intervention at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital Saves 2-Year-Old Boy from Choking on Betel Nut

In a life-saving operation, doctors at Ahmedabad Civil Hospital successfully removed a piece of betel nut lodged in the trachea of a two-year-old child, narrowly saving him from a potentially fatal situation. The case has once again highlighted the need for constant vigilance by parents and caregivers of young children.

.....