

Garba pass prices soar up to ₹10k in Ahmedabad; Navratri commercialization in spotlight

Navratri is just around the corner, and Khelaiyas are already gearing up to dance their hearts out to the tunes of Garba. With less than a month left for the nine-day festival, bookings for Garba passes have begun both offline and through online platforms. While Vadodara is known as the Garba capital of Gujarat, Ahmedabad—home to some of the largest and increasingly posh venues—does not lag behind.
