

Over 20 flights delayed at Ahmedabad airport after massive disruption at Delhi Airport

Over 20 flights arriving at or departing from Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel International (SVPI) Airport in the city are facing delays following massive disruptions at Delhi's Indira Gandhi International Airport (IGIA), which caused a ripple effect across several domestic and international routes. Passengers traveling to and from Surat and Vadodara also experienced late departures and arrivals due to the cascading impact from delays at Delhi Airport.
