Inside GIFT City's State-of-the-Art Command & Control Center: The Future of Urban Operation Is Here

Most cities around the world — including many in the developed world — would be envious of the advanced, technology-driven city management system operational at The Gujarat International Finance Tec-City (GIFT City) in Gandhinagar. The way GIFT City functions makes you feel that the future isn't something to look forward to; it's already here, fully active and integrated into everyday urban life.
