

Gulf flights partially resume from Ahmedabad Airport amid Iran conflict; several services still cancelled

Air traffic between India and West Asia has begun to gradually resume even as the conflict that started after the US and Israel air strikes on Iran entered its 11th day on Tuesday. Flight operations to several Gulf destinations had been disrupted after multiple countries closed their airspace, leading to a temporary suspension of services.

.....