

Police Mull Lie Detector Test of Family Members in Suspected 'Dosa Batter' Death Case

The suspected case of fatal food poisoning in Chandkheda has now taken a serious turn, with investigators probing it as a potential double murder after forensic findings reportedly revealed toxic pesticides in the blood samples of two young sisters and their parents.

.....