Ahmedabad to Get ₹82.6 Crore Sports Complex

With an eye on hosting the Commonwealth Games in the city, the Amdavad Municipal Corporation (AMC) is set to build an integrated sports complex in the Bhadaj area of the Thaltej ward. The civic body has invited bids for this sports infrastructure project, which is estimated to cost ₹82.60 crore.

World-Class Facilities for Indoor and Outdoor Sports

The complex will be designed as a hub for a diverse range of activities, featuring both high-performance competitive arenas and recreational zones.

Indoor Sports Block: The heart of the facility will be a multipurpose indoor sports hall consisting of a four-court hall for basketball, volleyball, and badminton, alongside a multi-sport hall which will be dedicated to combat sports like taekwondo, kabaddi, and wrestling, as well as table tennis.
