₹547 Crore Hospital, Hostels and Research Facilities to Come Up at Ahmedabad Air India Crash Site

Today marks the one-year anniversary of the Air India plane crash in the city, which claimed the lives of over 250 people and damaged the hostel building in the Civil Hospital campus. Now, the state government has decided to construct a modern hospital and hostel by removing the damaged buildings at the New Mental Campus located in Meghaninagar.

In this regard, Minister of State for Health Praful Pansheriya said that “after the tragic plane crash, immediate accommodation and food arrangements were made for the affected students and their families. Now, the State Government has resolved to develop the entire area as a modern health temple and education temple.”

The following new projects will be taken up by removing the buildings damaged in the plane crash at the New Mental Campus:
