Dy CM Reviews Security Arrangements and Preparedness Ahead of the Ahmdedabad Rath Yatra 2026

A high level review meeting chaired by Deputy Chief Minister Harsh Sanghavi was held to review preparations for the peaceful, safe and harmonious conduct of the 149th Rath Yatra of Lord Jagannath on the occasion of Ashadhi Bij.

During the meeting, the DyCM conducted a detailed review of all security arrangements, the law and order situation and the preparedness of various departments ahead of the Rath Yatra. He urged the police administration to remain fully prepared to ensure peace and safety throughout the city during the procession. He provided necessary guidance and suggestions regarding the deployment of stringent police security along the Rath Yatra route, smooth traffic management and strengthening of emergency services

He held detailed discussions on the planning of security arrangements for the Rath Yatra. During the meeting, officials presented details regarding visits to sensitive points along the route, interaction with local community leaders and strict preventive action against anti social elements. He emphasised to strengthen security through better coordination between technology and manpower. He urged all departments to ensure complete arrangements so that the Rath Yatra is conducted smoothly in an atmosphere of devotion and enthusiasm.
