

No More Police Station Visits for Passport Verification in Gujarat, Directs State DGP

Gujarat State Police Chief Gyanendrasinh Malik has issued strict directives simplifying the passport verification process, eliminating the requirement for applicants to physically visit police stations.

Under the new guidelines, police verification will focus exclusively on verifying the applicant's citizenship and checking for any criminal antecedents. Separate, physical verification of the applicant's residential address by local police is no longer required, nor is obtaining an in-person signature.
