

From_deshgujarat.com

27-08-2026 04:56:19

Pilot Held for Rash Driving Porsche at 110 km/h in Ahmedabad After Video Goes Viral

A 24-year-old pilot was arrested by Navrangpura police after allegedly driving a Porsche at high speed near Law Garden, putting other motorists at risk. Police seized the luxury car after a dashcam video of the incident went viral on social media.

The accused, identified as Arkan Tirmizi, a resident of Limbdia village in Gandhinagar, was arrested after a complaint was filed by a young man who alleged that the Porsche narrowly missed his car while being driven at around 110 km/h.

The incident came to light after Shreyansh, who was returning to his car near HCG Hospital after finishing work, reportedly saw the Porsche speeding towards him. The car was travelling at such a high speed that he narrowly escaped a collision. The incident was captured on his car's dashcam.