

Three held in Ahmedabad after dangerous bike stunt video goes viral

Ellisbridge police booked four people, including a juvenile, after a video of them allegedly performing a dangerous bike stunt went viral on social media.

The video, recorded at night on the road from Ellisbridge Police Station towards VS Hospital, shows a biker riding without a helmet with two youths seated behind him, while another youth is seen perched on the rider's shoulders.

After the video came to the police's notice through social media, Ellisbridge police nabbed all four persons seen in the video on Monday. Legal proceedings have been initiated against them under the applicable provisions.
